Plan Options

Your Hooray Health Max benefit plan can cover you, your spouse, your children, or your entire family.

With a Hooray Health Max Advantage Plan, you have fixed payments for visits and services, with a policy year maximum. If you reach your maximum, you still have access to Hooray Health's network of savings, accident coverage, telemedicine, and more! With MEC, you have preventative services 100% covered through the First Health Network.
